

Building Height Certification

Prior to final inspection the building height must be certified to be at or below the maximum mean roof height of 35'*. A North Carolina registered land surveyor or engineer must certify actual mean roof height.

Project Application Number: _____

Property Owner(s): _____

Property Address: _____

Height:

I hereby certify that the mean roof height of the structure is _____ .

Registered Land Surveyor / Civil Engineer

Date

License Number & Seal

Address

City

State

Zip

*When structures in a special flood hazard area are required to be elevated in order to meet the design flood elevation (DFE), the maximum building height may be exceeded subject to the requirements of the Unified Development Ordinance.